Advantages

The ideal sales agent will have a good working knowledge of local real estate market conditions, be prepared to deliver a high standard of service to customers, and have the support of a large real estate company.

Most importantly, a good agent will save you time and money.

When buying a house:

- Dena is an experienced negotiator who will manage your offers and counter-offers.
- Dena is familiar with the neighborhood and can give you information on local real estate values, taxes, utility costs, services and amenities.
- Dena is familiar with the entire home purchasing process and can advise you of your legal and financial options as well as recommend appraisal, home inspection and contracting services.

Dena can pinpoint homes that fit your needs and dismiss those that do not, saving you time.

Choose Dena Arnold for honest, reliable advice !!
